English Speaking Classes

Are you interested in an innovative and creative way to learn communication skills, new vocabulary and practice listening and speaking skills on a one-one basis, exploring the books of the Bible in English and the characters and figures spanning thousands of years? Then this 10-week program for priests, religious and lay Catholics might be for you.

The aim is to help non-native speakers of English to advance their communication skills in English through the Bible, its stories and characters and to learn from the greatest communicator of all – Jesus. It is said that the gospels of the Four Evangelists gave the world the greatest story ever told and so this course will all learn from the greatest story ever told. It will also look at the Sunday readings for the Church Liturgical Calendar.

Sign up today to enquire about the program, or phone 087-6251951.

Residential Opportunities this summer

We hope you're safe, warm and healthy as we enter into this beautiful new year we've been given. It has been a wonderful, if unusual, first season here at the new FCJ Spirituality House, Teach Spiorodálta. We have welcomed old and new friends, hosted small groups, crafted, meditated, discussed and rested. Mainly we have all appreciated the beautiful place we are blessed to be in! We are grateful for all your support, engagement and ideas in 2021. As we start 2022, we will begin with events online (see page 2). We hope to keep developing both one day and residential events here in 2022, as circumstances allow. Thank you for your patience as we learn. Nóirin Lynch

The Catholic Education Partnership is currently in the process of recruiting a CEO. This position will be full-time and based in Maynooth. The outgoing CEO, Gillian McGrath, has done great work in establishing the new CEP company and forging relationships with stakeholders. Unfortunately, for many reasons including the need for CEP to now move to a full-time CEO, Gillian has tendered her resignation from the end of March. Her work to date is much appreciated and she will be missed; we wish her every success in the future.
