

Stewarding the Mysteries: perspectives on healthcare chaplaincy

A symposium for everyone involved in or thinking of a career in healthcare chaplaincy

Thursday 29th June: 9.30am - 4pm

Celtic Suite, Croke Park Stadium,
Jones Road, Dublin 3

Registration

The Symposium is free to attend. Registration is required in advance by contacting Jenny Collins at jcollins@bonsecours.ie

Participants can claim 5 CPD points from the HCB and 4.5 CPD points from the CAB.

Agenda

Time	Speaker	Topic
09.00am	Registration opens	Refreshments
09.45am	Mr Bill Maher Group Chief Executive, Bon Secours Health System	Welcome and Conference Launch
10.00am	Rev Prof Tom Casey Jesuit Priest, Author and former Dean of Philosophy, St Patrick's Pontifical University, Maynooth	Moments of Grace: Encountering the Human Being in all its Modern Complexity
10.45am	Ms Meiread Ashe Chief Data Protection Officer, Bon Secours Health System	Data Protection Principles in Pastoral Care
11.15am	Coffee Break
11.45am	Dr Amanullah de Sondy Head of Study of Religions Department and Senior Lecturer in Islam, University College, Cork	Dignity and Diversity: Perspectives on Cultural Diversity and Inclusion in Modern Ireland
12.30pm	Anne Martin , Chaplain, Bon Secours Hospital Dublin and Anne-Marie Leahy , Chaplain, Tallaght University Hospital	Midday Reflective Prayer
1.00pm	Lunch
2.00pm	Bishop Michael Ruter Auxiliary Bishop of Armagh Chair; Commission for Healthcare, Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference	An Address to Healthcare Chaplains
2.15pm	Julieann Moran General Secretary of the Irish Synodal Pathway	Reaching Out: Understanding Healthcare Chaplaincy within the Framework of the Church's Synodal Pathway
3.00pm	Doireann Ni Bhriain Former Journalist and RTE Presenter	A Time to Speak: Facilitated Open Discussion on the Challenges and Opportunities of Contemporary Healthcare Chaplaincy
3.45pm	Mr Andrew McCarthy Chief Sponsorship and Mission Officer, Bon Secours Health System	Closing Remarks

